Privacy Policy

Effective November 5, 2026

This policy explains what information I.Q. Productionz collects when you use iqproductionz.com, our forms, or the QR Platform, and how we use it.

Information we collect

- Contact and project details: your name, business name, email, phone, address, and anything you enter on our forms.
- Files you send: logos, photos, payment screenshots, and links you share for your project.
- Payment details: Stripe, PayPal, and Cash App process payments. We receive confirmation details such as the amount, date, and payment ID. We do not receive or store full card numbers.
- QR Platform accounts: your email, username, saved codes, and purchases.
- QR scan data: when someone scans a dynamic code, we log scan counts, device type, and location information so the code owner can view statistics.
- Technical data: basic browser, device, and usage information collected by our hosting and security providers.

How we use it

- To deliver your project, product, or booking
- To confirm payments and keep business records
- To reply to you and send service messages
- To run, secure, and improve our site and QR Platform
- To meet legal, tax, and accounting duties

We do not sell your personal information.

Services we rely on

We share only what each provider needs to do its job.

Provider	Purpose
Cloudflare	Website hosting, security, and private storage of uploaded files
Stripe, PayPal, Cash App	Payment processing
EmailJS	Delivering form submissions to us by email
Google Firebase	QR Platform sign-in, saved codes, and scan data
Wix	Some site pages
Google Fonts	Displaying our site's fonts

Cookies and browser storage

Our site and providers may use cookies and similar browser storage to keep you signed in, remember settings, and protect against abuse. Blocking them may stop some features from working.

How long we keep information

- Files uploaded through our intake form are deleted within 180 days, and often sooner.
- Project and payment records are kept as long as needed for business, tax, and legal purposes.
- QR account data stays until you ask us to delete it, subject to records we must keep.

Your choices

You may ask us to access, correct, or delete your personal information by emailing us. We will respond within a reasonable time and may need to confirm your identity.

Security

We use reputable providers and access controls to protect your information. No online service is perfectly secure, so please avoid sending sensitive details we did not ask for. Payment screenshots should not show full card or bank numbers.

Children

Our services are not directed to children under 13, and we do not knowingly collect their information.

Changes and contact

We may update this policy and will post the new version with its effective date. Questions? Email SarahParsons@IQProductionz.com.
